

Nursery Core Book List

We have chosen twelve books which we want our children to know well by the time they leave Nursery. These are books that can be visited again and again on various levels to support language development. We aim to develop language and extend children's vocabulary as well as encouraging a love of books from a young age. These books will become familiar to children giving them the ability to remember and re-tell them.

